

Tarantula Terror

Quiz

1. How much can a yellow anaconda snake weigh?

2. Are snakes' skins slimy or dry?

3. How long are the pygmy marmosets' furry tails?

4. Is the Brazilian Salmon Pink's shell soft or hard?

5. What are baby tarantulas called?

6. What do Brazilian Salmon Pink tarantulas do before they shed their shells?

Tarantula Word Search

ANACONDA
DRACULA
FUNFAIR
PYGMY
TARANTULA

BRAZIL
EMU
HAIRY
ROSA TERROR

DETECTIVES
ESCAPE
MYSTERY
SPIDERLINGS
WILDLIFE

Find the word in the puzzle.

Words can go in any direction.

Words can share letters as they cross over each other.

Answers to the quiz:

[Pupils will find the answers in chapters 2, 3 & 5]

1. A yellow anaconda can weigh up to 150kg.
2. Snakes' skins are dry.
3. They are twice as long as their bodies.
4. The Brazilian Salmon Pink's shell is soft.
5. Baby tarantulas are called spiderlings.
6. Brazilian Salmon Pink tarantulas spin a webby blanket on the floor before they shed their shells.